

The Union.

JUNCTION, SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1862.

The Sporting Fraternity have been trying the speed of their nags considerably lately. Two races in town this week.

Dr. R. M. Phillips, of Leavenworth, lost a son last Monday week, by drowning in the Kansas river, at that place.

A "Goak."—The Conservative suggests Gen. Lane as a proper person to supersede McClellan. Whether the joke is on old Jim, McClellan, or the Country, we can't see.

SOL. MILLER says the American Agriculturist has taken up the cudgels in defence of the editor of the Record. It has an article headed, "A Good Word for the Skunk."

The Missouri river is on a big rise, overflowing all the low lands, destroying houses, fences, and crops. The town of Elwood, opposite St. Joseph, is being rapidly swallowed up.

New Post Office.—A new post office has been established on Clark's Creek, at the crossing of the Salina and Lawrence roads. It is called Leon, and is in Morris County. Wm. M. Gilliam is the postmaster.

RUNNING MATCH.—A race between the horse Little Stranger of Junction, and Painter of Lake Sibley, will come off near this city on Saturday, the 26th inst. The stakes are $200 a side, and $100 forfeit money is now up. Considerable excitement is up among the "sports."

An interesting Sabbath-school has been started in this city, and meets every Sunday morning at ten o'clock in Taylor's Hall. Parents, send on your children—the thing must be sustained. Let it be encouraged until every child in the neighborhood is within its folds.

Our town has been graced for a few days past by the presence of about a dozen of those dirty, most miserable of God's creatures, Kaw Indians. Persons having any thing stealable lying around loose will do well to keep their eyes on it.

Two Jayhawkers were captured at Grass-hopper Falls one day last week, and taken to Fort Leavenworth. They had with them seven guns, all loaded, and about a dozen head of horses and mules, all of which were taken possession of.

The Kansas Emancipation League, at Leavenworth, reports that there are 1500 contrabands in and around Leavenworth, about 600 in and around Lawrence, and estimates that there are 4000 in other parts of the State, making a total of 6100.

Burrell Taylor has been released on taking the oath and giving bonds to the amount of $5000. H. T. Green and Ed. Stevenson are his bondsmen. We may expect from Burrell's pen an inside view of "American Bastilles," and also an elucidation of the vexed question, "Is this America?"

Pursuant to a call from the Superintendent of Public Schools of this County, a meeting was held in Taylor's Hall on Saturday, July 12th, for the purpose of organizing a School District in this vicinity. The Rev. Mr. Todd was called to the chair, and L. Hall appointed Secretary. A Committee being appointed for that purpose, reported the names of N. S. Gilbert for Director, L. Hall, Clerk, and George Montague, Treasurer. The report was accepted. No further business coming before the meeting it adjourned.

ORDERED OFF.—A. F. Pratt, who edited the Inquirer during the incarceration of Taylor, and formerly a partner of the Sutter of the Third Wisconsin Cavalry, has been ordered to leave the State, by General Blunt. The General Commanding bids fair to out-Butler Butler in his dealings with secession sympathizers. The Times says:

"This order is a just rebuke to an officious intermeddler, who had no connection with the regiment, but obtained a little credit by claiming to be attached to it, and has caused it more trouble than all the Jayhawkers. His low jokes, indecent sneers and ill-disguised sympathy with the rebel cause, have well earned this penalty. The regiment feels this order quite as much as under any circumstances, it can prove to the people of the city and State."

Progress or retrogression is the device of the day. We perceived this the best when we called at Leavenworth, at Mr. S. M. Rothschild's Store who keeps a large and nice assortment, wholesale and retail, of MILLINERY AND BRAW GOODS, HOSIERY, GLOVES, FOOT SKIRTS, ALL KINDS OF NOTIONS AND FANCY GOODS, WILLOW WARE, CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, and intends keeping DRY GOODS by next Fall. For that purpose he is enlarging his Store and finishing it up in the latest New York style. We therefore advise ALL, especially MERCHANTS and MILLINERS, to call at his establishment, 71 Delaware street, and buy their wants, where they will surely find the best and greatest assortment, the lowest prices, and most prompt attendance in the Western country.

A Cold Blooded Murder.—A man by the name of Robert Bailey was shot by another named John Wise, one day last week on Clear Creek, in Morris County. The particulars, as we learn, are as follows: Wisconsin Bailey had some slight trouble on a Buffalo hunt, about a year ago; but it was not thought to be anything serious. On the 4th inst., Wise came into the field where Bailey was at work, and accused him of swindling him out of certain logs. This Bailey denied, and told Wise that he might have the logs, if he wanted them, as he did not wish to have any trouble with him. Wise then commenced treading on the grain, which Bailey was cutting, and taking other means of aggravating him. Bailey then ordered him out of the field. Upon his refusing to go, Bailey knocked him down with a rake. Wise regained his feet, and stabbed Bailey in the neck with a knife. Bailey got hold of the knife, and stabbed Wise once, and then again ordered him out of the field. He started, got as far as where he had left his gun, turned and shot Bailey in the lower jaw, tearing it almost off, and as he fell, shooting him again in the side. Bailey's wife was the only one present. This was no doubt a cold blooded and premeditated murder, and the people of that section should take immediate steps to bring the murderer to justice.

Two Engagements.—The Kansas Ninth has had a fight with the rebels at Grand Saline, 30 miles this side of Fort Gibson. The enemy were completely routed, with a loss of sixty killed and 103 prisoners. They numbered about 300, and were led by Col. Clarkson, an old Buchanan office-holder at Leavenworth. The Kansas Sixth, to which is attached Captain Clark's company of this neighborhood, have also had a brush with the enemy, surprising a party of them, taking some prisoners and killing a number. The loss of the Kansas boys was trifling.

Since the above was in type Mr. L. C. Palmer, a member of Captain Schuette's company, arrived in town. He reports the boys all well, the company having passed through the affair at Grand Saline without receiving a scratch. Fifty of the Captain's boys are on their way to Fort Leavenworth, escorting about 150 prisoners, among them is Clarkson, ex-postmaster at Leavenworth. The company will return immediately with fifteen of his men. Captain Schuette with fifteen of his men led the charge. The fight lasted but a few minutes, and resulted in routing the enemy, killing sixty, and capturing a number of prisoners. Our forces had three killed. John Ross, the great Cherokee chief, surrendered himself and command, and reported 3000 Indians anxious to do likewise. The command consists of the 4th, 6th, 9th, and 10th Kansas, and the two Indian regiments. About four hundred negroes followed the escort into Kansas, bringing with them all their master's wagons and homes. The escort brought 3000 head of cattle, captured from the rebels, to Fort Scott. The Indians behaved splendidly, and show no mercy to the destroyers of their homes. The killing of pickets having been adopted by the rebels, Indians are now put on picket duty by our troops, and they prove quite equal in the bushwhacking mode of fighting. Both their regiments are full, Ritchie's numbering over fifteen hundred. They take no prisoners, and in the severity with which they handle secession exhibit more good sense than their white brethren. We are pleased to state that Schuette now holds a Captain's commission, and is Acting Assistant Adjutant General.

By a letter in the Conservative from Fort Larned, we learn that Captain Whittenhall, late of Fort Riley, was surrounded by a rather serious mutiny, but by determined will, sustained by some regulars, it was squelched in the head. It appears that the Captain ordered the companies of the garrison to appear on parade with infantry arms. B company, of the Second, under command of Lieut. Adzule, conceived this beneath the dignity of cavalry soldiers, and refused to obey, whereupon the Captain arrested four corporals and three privates, whom he found to be the leaders of the affair, formed a battalion on three sides, with the prisoners on the fourth, ordered the battalion to load, and then informed the prisoners that unless they got upon their knees, and acknowledged their fault, and promise better in the future, they would be shot in five minutes. They quickly acceded to the terms.

A member of the Kansas Second was shot at sunrise on the 11th inst., for violating the person of a woman. He was intoxicated, and presenting a pistol, forced her to yield with threats of death.
